

Explore new career horizons in our expansion countries!

Head of Logistic (m/f/d)

Place of work: North Macedonia
Entry date: By Agreement
Training abroad (up to 18 months)

Welcome to #NewLidlCountries

Are you looking for a new challenge in your professional life?
Do you want to develop personally and professionally and take on responsibility, especially in an international context?
Then the career opportunities in our expansion countries are perfect for you!

Apply now!

Your responsibility as part of our new opening

- Leading and developing the national logistics teams
- Work on setting up the logistics strategy, coordination and implementation of project developments and communication of logistics concepts such as the installation of selected systems in the warehouse and the review of warehouse processes regarding efficiency
- Selection and negotiation of transport companies and disposal service providers while ensuring a reliable service provider structure
- Implementation of a permanent cost control in all logistical areas; creation of reports, analysis of key figures and derivation of recommended actions
- Responsibility for the annual planning of all relevant key figures, e.g. transport costs and waste and recycling management
- Implementation and control of processes regarding internal standards including a proper fulfilment of tasks according to the organizational guidelines and to ensure profitability
- Monitoring of legal developments and risk factors
- Carrying out warehouse plan reviews

What it takes to drive expansion

- University degree – Logistic, Economics or another relevant field
- At least 6 years of professional experience where at least 2 years of managerial experience
- Fluent English language skills
- Knowledge of German language is preferable
- Mobility for training
- Driving license category B
- High sense of responsibility and commitment
- High social and communication skills and enjoy working in a team

Working in an expansion country - what we offer

- You will take a lot of responsibility, allowing you to develop both professionally and personally
- You can help build and shape the local organization and leave your own mark
- You will experience just how international Lidl is and have the chance to expand your international network

Contact details:
jobs@lidl.mk

Find out more:

