

Explore new career horizons in our expansion countries!

Head of Supply Chain (m/f/d)

Place of work: North Macedonia
Entry date: By Agreement
Training abroad (up to 18 months)

Welcome to #NewLidlCountries

Are you looking for a new challenge in your professional life?
Do you want to develop personally and professionally and take on responsibility, especially in an international context?
Then the career opportunities in our expansion countries are perfect for you!

Apply now!

Your responsibility as part of our new opening

- Leading, developing, and managing team according to the corporate culture
- Setting goals and creation of suitable framework to ensure tasks fulfilment.
- Coordination and communication with Purchasing department and other connected departments
- Activities connected with actions planning and planogram of the stores.
- Coordination and monitoring of promotional sales ensuring correct and timely distribution of products and promotional products to the stores regarding their needs.
- Following of the key figures and making quantity analysis ensuring efficient supplying of the goods and following the inventory levels and ranges in coordination with the warehouse
- Regular visits of the stores and following the customers' needs of the products range and quality.
- Following and realization of the yearly promotional plans

What it takes to drive expansion

- University degree
- Fluent English language skills
- Knowledge of German language is preferable
- Mobility for training
- Driving licence category B
- At least 3 years of professional experience where at least 2 years of managerial experience
- High sense of responsibility and commitment
- High social and communication skills and enjoy working in a team

Working in an expansion country - what we offer

- You will take a lot of responsibility, allowing you to develop both professionally and personally
- You can help build and shape the local organization and leave your own mark
- You will experience just how international Lidl is and have the chance to expand your international network

Contact details:
jobs@lidl.mk

Find out more:

